Defendants.

Civil Action No. 1:16-cv-09140

[PROPOSED] DEFAULT JUDGMENT AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION AGAINST DEFENDANTS THOMAS RUSSO AND ASEZAM RAHMAN

This matter is before the Court on Plaintiffs' Motion for Default Judgment against Defendants Thomas Russo and Asezam Rahman ("Default Defendants"). Having considered the Complaint, the exhibits, and amendments thereto, and the declarations of Ethan Orlinsky, Senior Vice President, Legal, Business and Club Affairs of Major League Baseball and Corporate Secretary of MLBP (ECF 20); Alison Miller, Vice President of Marketing at the Cubs (ECF 18); and Katherine McGovern, an experienced private investigator with Edward R. Kirby & Associates (ECF 19), the Declarations of Kevin M. Read, an experienced private investigator with Edward R. Kirby & Associate (ECF 42, 53, 62, 71, 95, 159) this Court hereby finds as follows:

1. Plaintiff Chicago Cubs Baseball Club, LLC (the "Cubs") owns exclusive rights to use, and extensively, exclusively, and continuously has used in commerce, a number of inherently distinctive word and design marks that identify and distinguish the Cubs ("Cubs Word and Design Marks"). Many of the Cubs Word and Design Marks are the subject of valid federal and/or state trademark registrations.

2. The Cubs own exclusive rights to use, and extensively, exclusively, and continuously have used in commerce, the Cubs' distinctive trade dress (the "Cubs Trade Dress," and collectively with the Cubs Word and Design Marks, the "Cubs Marks"), which consists of the Cubs' blue-and-red color scheme in combination with other indicia associated with the Cubs, such as: references to team successes and history (e.g., "1908"); geographic references (e.g., Chicago); traditions like the "W" flag, "Hey Hey," and "Go Cubs Go"; the Cubs uniform designs; names or images of famous Cubs players (e.g., Ernie Banks, Ron Santo, Ryne Sandberg, Anthony Rizzo, Kris Bryant, and Jake Arrieta), including their jersey images or numbers; names or images of famous Cubs managers and general managers; broadcast personalities; slogans, sayings, and other word marks and logos; and imagery related to Wrigley Field.

3. Plaintiff Major League Baseball Properties, Inc. ("MLBP") is a licensee of and acts as licensing agent for each of the Major League Baseball Clubs (including the Cubs), the Office of the Commissioner of Baseball (the "BOC") and their respective affiliated and related entities (collectively, the "MLB Entities"). The Major League Baseball Clubs currently consist of the Baltimore Orioles, Boston Red Sox, Chicago White Sox, Cleveland Indians, Detroit Tigers, Houston Astros, Kansas City Royals, Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, Minnesota Twins, New York Yankees, Oakland Athletics, Seattle Mariners, Tampa Bay Rays, Texas Rangers, Toronto Blue Jays, Arizona Diamondbacks, Atlanta Braves, Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds, Colorado Rockies, Miami Marlins, Los Angeles Dodgers, Milwaukee Brewers, New York Mets, Philadelphia Phillies, Pittsburgh Pirates, St. Louis Cardinals, San Diego Padres, San Francisco Giants and Washington Nationals. It is understood that references to the "MLB Clubs" or, individually, a "MLB Club," as the case may be, shall include each MLB Club's respective predecessors-in-interest, predecessors, successors and assigns.

4. Included among the intellectual property licensed and enforced by MLBP on behalf of itself and the other MLB Entities are the MLB Entities' trademarks, service marks and trade names and the trademark names owned, licensed, protected, and/or used by the MLB Entities and/or under which each of the MLB Clubs competes, along with a variety of other names, trademarks, service marks, logos, designs and trade dresses owned, licensed, protected, and/or used by the MLB Clubs, including the Cubs Marks (all referred to collectively herein as the "MLB Marks"), including, without limitation, the unique and inherently distinctive colors, color combinations, striping, uniform designs and/or positioning of the MLB Club names, logos, and other elements (such as geographic designations) used on the MLB Clubs' uniforms, or components thereof (the "MLB Uniform Trade Dress"; it is understood that all references herein to MLB Marks includes MLB Uniform Trade Dress).

5. The MLB Entities and their predecessors, affiliates, and licensees have long used and are using the MLB Marks, and many of the MLB Marks are the subject of valid federal and/or state trademark registrations, representative samples of which are listed in Exhibit 1.

6. As a result of the substantial use, marketing, and promotion of the MLB Marks for many years in connection with baseball-related services and as part of an extensive licensing program on a wide variety of goods and services relating to and promoting the MLB Clubs, the MLB Marks have become associated by fans, consumers and the trade, press, media and public with the MLB Entities and have developed considerable and valuable goodwill of great value to the MLB Entities.

7. The Default Defendants are manufacturing, distributing, advertising, marketing, offering for sale, and/or selling products that incorporate one or more of the MLB Marks or substantially indistinguishable, confusingly similar, or dilutive imitations thereof.

8. The Default Defendants are not licensed or authorized by Plaintiffs to use MLB Marks on or in connection with goods.

9. The Default Defendants' unlawful activities described above are likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception among members of the consuming public, and, in particular, among Cubs fans.

10. The Default Defendants' unlawful activities described above are likely to dilute, by blurring and/or tarnishment, the distinctive quality of one or more of the MLB Marks.

11. Each of the products depicted in Exhibit 2 (the "Infringing Goods") bears a substantially indistinguishable or confusingly similar imitation of one or more MLB Marks. The images of Infringing Goods depicted in Exhibit 2 are not comprehensive or exclusive and that manufacturing, distributing, advertising, marketing, offering for sale, and selling other products that incorporate one or more of the MLB Marks or substantially indistinguishable, confusingly similar, or dilutive imitations thereof would violate the terms of the permanent injunction below.

12. If this Court declines to grant an injunction and the other relief described below, Plaintiffs will have no adequate remedy at law and will suffer immediate and irreparable harm in the form of injury to Plaintiffs' reputation and property rights, harm to the goodwill associated with the MLB Marks, loss of quality associations and control over the MLB Marks and Plaintiffs' brands, and decreased sales of licensed merchandise.

13. If this Court declines to grant an injunction and the other relief described below, the harm to Plaintiffs clearly outweighs any harm that any of the Default Defendants may incur, because the Default Defendants have no legitimate rights to use MLB Marks, the Default Defendants have not requested permission from Plaintiffs to use the MLB Marks, and Plaintiffs have not consented to such use.

14. It is in the public interest that the infringing and counterfeit goods, including without limitation the Infringing Goods, be removed from sale to consumers.

15. On Thursday September 22, 2016, MLBP and the Cubs filed this action against the Default Defendants and others (the “Civil Action”) alleging claims for counterfeiting and trademark infringement under the Lanham Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114, false designations of origin, false or misleading descriptions of fact, or false and misleading representations of fact under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), trademark dilution under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c), trademark infringement under Illinois State law, 765 ILCS 1036/60, trademark dilution under Illinois State law, 765 ILCS 1036/65, common law unfair competition trademark infringement, and violations of 815 ILCS 510/1 et seq.

16. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and over the Default Defendants, and venue in this action is proper in this judicial district.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. Plaintiffs’ Motion for Default Judgment and Permanent Injunction Against Defendants Thomas Russo and Asezam Rahman is GRANTED.

2. The Clerk shall enter FINAL JUDGMENT against Defendants Thomas Russo and Asezam Rahman with regard to all claims asserted by MLBP and the Cubs in the Civil Action.

3. Defendants Thomas Russo and Asezam Rahman and all of their agents, officers, employees, representatives, successors, assigns, attorneys, and all other persons acting for, with, by, through, or under authority from any of the Default Defendants, or in concert or participation with any of the Default Defendants, and each of them, are PERMANENTLY ENJOINED and RESTRAINED, from:

- a. making use (including but not limited to trademark, fair, incidental, descriptive, or functional uses) in connection with the manufacture, sale, offering for sale distribution, advertising, or promoting of novelties, collectibles, clothing, or other apparel or any other product or service, including but not limited to use on the products themselves, and/or on the labels or packaging for the products and/or advertising or promotional materials for such products or services of:
  - i. any MLB Marks, or any other trademarks, service marks, names, trade names, trade dresses, logos, designs, distinctive colors, color combinations, striping, uniform designs, or the positioning of such elements on uniforms, that are substantially indistinguishable from, confusingly similar to, or dilutive of any of the MLB Marks;
  - ii. any images, pictures, posters, photographs, caricatures, depictions or likenesses in a still or moving form (collectively, “Images”) in whole or in part of current or former players, coaches or managers wearing any item resembling a Major League Baseball uniform or a component of such uniform on or in any products or materials including, without limitation, on any product, advertising, or promotional materials. For purposes of this Agreement, jerseys, pants, jackets, caps, helmets, and catchers’ equipment are considered components of a Major League Baseball uniform;

- iii. a uniform number and/or a baseball player name or any Images, and/or a geographical designation, initials, abbreviation, or other geographical reference to the location of a MLB Club together with any of the MLB Marks or other names, marks, trade dress, colors, or designs similar thereto or which identify or are associated with or suggest a connection with any of the MLB Entities;
  - b. doing any other act or thing calculated or likely to cause confusion with or dilute the MLB Marks or to suggest that any of the Default Defendants or their goods or services, are in any way associated or affiliated with, endorsed or sponsored by, or is a sponsor of, any of the MLB Entities; and
  - c. representing that any goods manufactured, distributed, offered for sale, or sold or advertised by any of the Default Defendants are sponsored or licensed or are authorized by or originate with Plaintiffs, or from otherwise taking any action likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception on the part of the public as to the origin or sponsorship of such goods, unless such articles of merchandise have been licensed by Plaintiffs; or from taking any actions infringing any of MLB Marks or other intellectual property rights, or from assisting, aiding, or abetting any other person or entity in engaging in or performing any of the activities referred to herein.
4. The Cubs, MLBP, and Default Defendants each shall bear their own costs, including attorneys' fees.

5. Within ten (10) days of entry of this Order, the Default Defendants shall:
  - a. be compelled to account to Plaintiffs for any and all profits derived by the Default Defendants from the sale or distribution of counterfeit or infringing goods as described in this Action; and
  - b. pay to Plaintiffs the entire amount of said profits because of the Default Defendants' knowing and intentional use of the MLB Marks.

6. This Court shall have continuing jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of the permanent injunction entered herein.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 2nd day of February, 2017.

The Honorable Robert W. Gettleman
United States District Judge
